

PROCEDURE

for recognition of conformity certificates on mutually supplied products manufactured in the Republic of Belarus and the Islamic Republic of Iran

1. This procedure is developed for implementation of the Agreement between the State Committee for Standardization of the Republic of Belarus and Institute of Standards & Industrial Research of Iran (ISIRI) signed in Tehran on November 7, 2006, that corresponds to Aban 16, 1385 on solar calendar, on co-operation in standardization, metrology, conformity assessment and accreditation (hereinafter – the Agreement).
2. To implement the procedure of recognition of the conformity certificates issued in the national conformity approval systems of the Republic of Belarus and Islamic Republic of Iran (hereinafter the Parties), the Applicant (manufacturer, seller or importer) shall send to the certification bodies of the importing country specified in Cl.8 of the Agreement:
  - 2.1 an application for recognition of the conformity certificate for exported/imported products;
  - 2.2 conformity certificate of the exporting country (original or copy stamped by the original conformity certificate holder or by the certification body);
  - 2.3 reports of the certification tests carried out in the accredited laboratories of the exporting country and the other necessary documents in compliance with the legislation of the Parties (certificates of the state hygienic registration, if necessary);
3. Conformity certificate of the exporting country is rearranged to the conformity certificate of the importing country.
4. Conformity certificates and test reports shall be supplied with the translation into the language of the importing country or the English language.
5. The Parties shall mutually inform each other of the accredited certification bodies authorized to carry out recognition of the conformity certificates.
6. This procedure covers the mutually supplied products subject to the obligatory approval of conformity and other kinds of the products manufactured on the territory of the Parties by request of the exporting country.

For the State Committee for Standardization
of the Republic of Belarus

Chairman
Mr. Valery Koreshkov

For the Institute of Standards &
Industrial Research of Iran

President
Mr. Mohammad Nazemi Ardekani